CALCINE CINDERS.

(By Harry C. Simmons.)

Anaconda, Mont.—Anaconda has the world's largest smelting and refining works. It employs from 4,000 to 5,000 men annually. Men of skilled labor and trades can get employment without any discrimination. The only thing required is to demonstrate the ability and perform the duties assigned satisfactorily. There are engineers, switchmen, leaders, flagmen and weighers; also lubricators and men who are engaged in more minor things. This town has an elevation of 5,000 feet above the sea level and commands a magnificent view of the surrounding Deer Lodge Valley. The race people are thrifty, ambitious, industrious and prosperous. The A. M. E. church, Rev. Robert House and his amiable and charming wife, are new people here, but since his appointment to this field he has endeavored himself to his congregation through his sincerity and piety. Through his untiring efforts, assisted by his better half, he has converted quite a number of young people. We all wish them Godspeed and pray that their stay among us may be definite. The Pastor's Aid society surpassed all previous efforts Thursday afternoon and night, January 18. The ladies gave a dinner de luxe and necktie and apron bazaar at night. Many were turned away from dinner owing to the deficiency of the supply. A novel bank created much merriment. Three misses were competing for prizes. The one whose bank contained the most finance was declared winner. Miss Wanda Johnson won first prize, a beautiful sink lounge pillow, a floral; Miss Theodore Renaud, second prize, an elegant fancy pin cushion; Miss Moselee McGill, third prize, a handsome box of confections. The entire proceeds are for the pastor for visiting people who come to Anaconda, can find a complete line of cigars, tobacco, pool and billiards, cards and wet goods; also barber shop in connection. A place for gentlemen to spend their leisure moments and soliloquize. Mr. Edward Shears is president and manager; Mr. William J. Brown, secretary; Mr. George Carter, steward. Mrs. P. Stovall expects to be right in the limelight as soon as the sidewalk and lights surround her estate. Mrs. William Johnson of Hickory street, entertained Mr. and Mrs. William Green and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Carnall last week at cards. Light refreshments. Mr. Abraham L. Bohon, attaché of the postoffice, has been indisposed for a month or more, unable to perform his duties for Uncle Sam. But we are proud at this time to say he has overstepped the thin ice and will be back soon.

WELLINGTON, MISSOURI.

(By Hattie Hanna.)

Mrs. Mary Page was shopping in Lexington a few days last week. Miss Mabel Buckner of Kansas City, is visiting here this week. Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Hanna are the happy parents of a baby boy. Mrs. John White of Kansas City, came down for a few days with relatives. Mrs. Thomas Brown and Mrs. J. D. Carney were shopping in Lexington last Friday. Mrs. Lucy Martin received the sad news of her brother's death. She being ill herself, was unable to attend the funeral. Her daughter, Mrs. Lila Loring of Rosedale, has been at her bedside.
